Farolki: Prisoners.—On Friday last, the One-hundred-and-twenty-sixth regiment N. V. volun-teers arrived here from Chicago. This regiment was captured and paroied, with others, at the unfortu-nate affair at likeper's Ferry. They have just been exchanged, and were marched over to Camp Chase, near Arlington. They are anxious to be placed under the lead of brave and loyal commanders, and declare they will show that the convardice or treach-ery at Harper's Ferry was not on the part of the soldiers.

Metring of Congress.—Our city assumes its usual appearance on the opening of Congress. The familiar faces of the distinguished men of the assument of Congress, are now filling the city. During the past week great activity and industry has been alterlayed in cleaning the Capitol and brushing upmatters generally for the accommodation of the chosen representatives of a sovereign people.
